If your buildings need painting, you can't afford to neglect them. It's as poor economy as letting your horses and cattle go half fed. Without paint, woodwork goes rapidly to decay. Paint excludes air and moisture, preserves the wood and doubles a building's life. Then, too, there's the attractiveness of a well painted house.

Paint doesn't cost much either. We will sell you Moore's Pure House Colors, ready mixed, at $1.25 per gallon, all ready for use, and no time wasted mixing colors. They are bright, durable, attractive, ground in pure linseed oil and warranted satisfactory.

Some of the best town and country houses in Orange county are painted with Moore's Pure House Colors. Come and get a sample card. If you prefer lead and oil, our prices are the lowest possible for pure stock.

Then for your wagons, we will sell you colors ground in varnish which will make an old wagon look new at small expense. You can use them yourself. See how little it will cost you to brighten up.

Stated Spring Meeting at Montgomery

MUCH IMPORTANT BUSINESS DONE.

R. Brewster Beattie Examined and Licensed to Preach - Temporary License to J. E. Wilkie - Delegates to General Assembly.

At Tuesday's meeting of Hudson Presbytery, in Montgomery, Rev. Andrew Nelson, of the Presbytery of Lyons, N. Y., accepted the call of Liberty church and his installation is to take place on Wednesday evening May 24.

John R. Wilkie a candidate for the ministry was received from the Presbytery of Parkersburg, Va. He was examined in Greek and Hebrew and was granted a temporary license to preach.

Robert Brewster Beattie, son of Rev. Charles Beattie, D. D., of Middletown, after passing the required examinations, was licensed to preach the gospel. He is near the end of his theological course in Princeton Seminary.

Commissioners to the general assembly in Minneapolis, May next, were chosen as follows:

Ministers—Rev. Chas. Beattie, D. D. of Middletown; alternate—Rev. George H. Gillespie, of Port Jervis; Rev. John H. Thompson, of Goodwill Church; Rev. T. Britton of Ridgebury.

Elders—Augustus Dunnington of Washington; alternate—Rev. M. Corwin, of Middletown; and Wm. H. Paul, of Scotchtown; alternate, John W. Yerxa of Palisades.

Rev. I. Rutenbach, of Stony Point, made an interesting report on college and academy. The following committee was appointed on Deacons: Rev. J. E. Wilkie, of Scotchtown; Rev. Alex. Gilmore, of Campbell Hall; Rev. Charles Beattie, D. D. of Hudson; H. D. Thompson, of Goodwill; and F. T. Hanford of Middletown.

Rev. R. H. Taylor, of Westtown, was appointed moderator of session of South Centerville church. Rev. R. B. Prime of session of White Lake church and Rev. David Winters, of Middletown, of session of Deutscher church.

Westtown church was chosen as place of next stated meeting on the third Monday of September.

The plan recently adopted by presbytery of taking care of its own weak churches has so far succeeded beyond expectation. Presbytery has not their needs and turned out a surplus of $400 to the help of the weak churches where in New York state.

A general purpose meeting in the vestry of Home Missions was held Tuesday evening. The principal address was by Rev. Wilson Phinney, D. D., formerly pastor in Sing Sing. He presented ably the problems of our country, already divided and those yet to solve in the solution. He brought the bearing to the removal of the debt of the B. O. of Home Missions.

The meeting was held much to the satisfaction of the members of the church.

Montgomery church returned to the Presbytery assembly. The pastor, Rev. J. E. Wilkie, and all members of the church were present. It was a pleasure to the Presbytery to find the church so prosperous and to find the members so interested in the work of the Presbytery.

Forrest, ready by his own name in the naturalness of his speaking the portrait of him on the walls.

OIL STRIKE IN TEXAS

Recalls Orange and Sussex Colonists' Bad Luck.

OIL IN LAND THEY ONCE OWNED.

Some Well Known Members of the Colony - Nearly Starved on Sage Brush Land - Were Glad to Get Back to God's Country.

The striking of oil on the ranch of Hon. Roger Q. Mills, near Corsicana, Texas, as published in Sunday's newspaper is of special interest to many in this city for the reason that a colony, which started from this city, Newburgh and Deckerstown nearly a score of years ago, settled in the locality which is now likely to prove a rich oil field.

There were thirty three from Middletown in the party, among them being W. H. McArthur and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Knapp, W. H. Carpenter and family, Charles and George Green and Charles Cooper. John Doyle son of ex-Mayor Doyle, of Newburgh and Civil Engineer Victor K. Mills, of Goshen, were also in the party. H. H. Rayer, of Ottaville then of Deckerstown was the moving spirit in the organization of the colony, and many from Deckerstown and Sussex county were among the emigrants.

The trip was made to Rye which is ten miles from Corsicana, all right, and the colonists found an army of jack rabbits and a wealth of sage brush awaiting them. "Hips" Knapp says that he looked for the land allotted him in a boat. Later he (Charles Green and young Hips) bought a half-mile tract, but it proved to be worthless. "Hips" says he went there with $1,780 and returned with $50.

Victor K. Mills and wife had for a railroad there and John Vail the well known politician, worked on the road.

W. H. McArthur built a house on his tract and a wind-mill along and flattened it out.

The party of 250 drifted back north as rapidly as possible, and in less than eight months nearly all, save a few who died, were back in God's country.

One party drove back, the journey taking several months.

The oil mine struck there are very profitable and the value of the land has gone up amazingly—and it is the oil mine land, on which some of that brave little band of colonists nearly starved to death while trying to make homes for themselves.

HYMENEAL

Edw. H. Lohmeyer, of Newburgh, N. Y., and Miss Ida, daughter of Wm. Mollis of Minerva, N. Y., were united in marriage at the residence of Rev. W. Buehner, of Deckerstown, at 2 p. m., April 16, 1904.

The bride was charmingly attired in a traveling suit and immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip.

JOLLY TRAINMEN.

Big Time at the Seventeenth Annual Ball - Alderman Decolon Won the Ring - Lots of Visitors.

The seventh annual ball of Middletown Lodge, No. 40, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, was held at the Casino, Tuesday night, and it was a big success. The ball room was out in full force with lots of members of the fair sex, and there were popular representatives from the following lodges:

Parlor City, No. 86, Binghamton (Orange), No. 242, Norwich, C. D. McKelvey, No. 87, Paterson, Jersey City, No. 514, Newark, No. 268, Port Jervis, Baidy, No. 541, Westhewen, No. 491.

These were met by "Charlie" Doell, chairman of Reception Committee, and his assistants, Charles E. Jones and P. L. Brink, and were introduced so thoroughly that they had a big time and a big success.

Berg's orchestra furnished the music and the stage and balcony rail were prettily decorated with potted plants, vases and "What Happened to Jones' Company" by Charles Doell and Ed. Henry.

The Floor Committee, under the direction of Harry E. Decolon, included C. C. Frame, J. H. Carter, A. R. Carpenter and G. H. Morgan. They found difficulty in placing all of the dancers, but they went on without any annoyance except crowding until 3:30, this morning.

The dancers went home early at that hour much against their will.

During the evening there was a voting contest for a beautiful diamond ring. It was a thick, heavy gold ring, with the monogram of the order set with diamonds, rubies and emeralds the train colors.

The contestants were Charles E. Decolon, Middletown Lodge, F. E. Delaney, Newark Lodge, Everett Lord, C. D. McKelvey Lodge, Alderman Decolon won it handsily, receiving 1970 votes.

Mr. Delaney was second with 881, and Mr. Lord third with 375. The local lodge was particularly happy over their success in winning the ring, as the lodge's membership is much smaller than those from which Alderman Decolon's competitors had.

At midnight those who had not partaken of the refreshment and cake served by the ladies in the Casino banquet hall, adjourned to Capt. Totter's and Howley's for refreshments.

The event was arranged by the following committee: F. E. Henry, chairman, Wm. Elliott, J. Delaney, F. Jones, H. L. Culver.

They advertised the event judiciously and persistently, and the result proved that this committee knows its business.

Section of the Board of Trade.

A well attended meeting of the directors of the Board of Trade, was held at their rooms, Tuesday night. W. L. McWilliams was elected a director and Wm. Williams was elected secretary of the Board.

A Babber Police

Instead of doing so, Brown pulled a shot and killed the robber. The stranger was a seven shots, one of them striking the cashier in the arm inflicting a slight wound. It was taken away and it is believed that the man is still in the city.
